President's Note

Winter brings the beginning of a new year; it also has cold weather and snow, and the Holiday Season has many wonderful traditions along with the sharing of family's time and love.

Knowing how to blend the multi facets of this time can make the 2020-2021 winter season full of appreciation and gratitude. Each one of us has the inner knowledge on how to unfold and manifest what it is we want to create to bring our dreams into reality.

The first SCC Zoom Annual General Meeting was held on Saturday, September 26, 2020. We are happy to say that all went well, and we were able to conduct the organization's business through this online gathering. Many thanks to everyone across Canada who attended to make this meeting successful.

Introducing your 2020-2021 Board:

President: Angie Morra, Vice President: Stevie Martin, Treasurer: Nadine Miller, Secretary: Mary Schamehorn, Education Chairs: Brenda Philp and Bobbi Pineau, Governors: Marilyn Mazzotta, Gillian Edwards, Jill Washington, Hilary Bartlett and the board invited Terrance Gibson to join the team.

Our first Virtual Divine Service will be held on Saturday, January 16, 2021, at 12 pm EST. We hope to see many of you online.

Please visit our website

www.spiritualistchurchofcanada.com for more information about the Virtual Service. For our students, we invite you to review the education program for the calendar years 2021 and 2022. Please stay tuned for more information on our exciting Fundraising events for 2021.

As always, we welcome your ideas. Please use our email address feedback@spiritualistchurchofcanada.com to let us know what you are thinking.

The SCC board wishes everyone a Happy Holiday Season and a Happy New Year!

Editor's Note

Counting down the days to the end of a mixed-up year is understandable at the moment. We don't want to wait any longer for life as we knew it to be restored; we simply want it to resume now! But we know that cannot be. We know that we cannot go back, know that we must work together to move forward.

Working within our communities, working within ourselves to face one more day. 2021 we say to ourselves, although it will not happen overnight, it still offers us something to look forward to and share; a new year to get things under control, to learn, to teach, to inspire positively. We must obtain a sense of coming together with less divisiveness amongst ourselves, starting now.

The inhabitants of this world are acknowledging there are lessons to be learned. Never mind focusing solely on setting New Year resolutions; rather, do your best to follow through and learn the lessons.

"just as a candle cannot burn without fire, man cannot live without a spiritual life - Buddha

Much Peace, peachiness and Love, Stevie

Hope by Ron Koch

The night was cold and dreary
No place to warm an aching body
No place to rest

The virus got me
I am under house arrest
Unable to leave for fear
Contaminating the world

Fourteen days of solitude
Nothing to do but rest
Far from my loved ones
Far from the world I love

What to do locked up in my home
Sitting in the window
Looking for the sun to shine on this cold day

Hope is in those who say - "just a little more time"
That's all we have - time
Reading is my only option
Can't see for the tears that flow from my eyes

Oh, how beautiful it is outside
Warm in the sunshine
The children walk to school
Masked and rapped in winter clothes
On this cold fall day

Another day and I'll be okay
I'll once again feel the sun on my back
The sunshine on my face
Hope in a cure - a vaccine
A virus under control
Freedom at last

Spirit's Reading Corner

Another Canadian Born Makes History in Spiritualism!

Following the birth of Spiritualism in 1848 by Maggie and Kate Fox, known as the Fox Sisters, mediums continued to hold séances.

Maria Hayden was born in Nova Scotia but moved to Boston where she married and resided with her husband. She was the woman responsible for taking mediumship from United States of America (USA) to the United Kingdom (UK) in 1852. Maria became a physician after returning to USA from the UK.

Until recently, very little was known about Maria Hayden.

On November 14, 2020, Sharon DeBartolo Carmack facilitated an informative lecture titled The Life of Maria B. Hayden for the National Spiritualist Union (SNU). A podcast of Sharon DeBartolo Carmack's lecture is available at: <http://mariabhayden.net/youtube-lecture/>.

Sharon DeBartolo Carmack has also written a book titled "In Search of Maria B. Hayden, M.D.: The American Medium Who Brought Spiritualism to the U.K." which she hopes will be available before Christmas 2020. You will find more information about Maria B. Hayden on Sharon DeBartolo Carmack's website.

Her lecture and website are most informative

Although Maria Hayden and the Fox Sisters were American residents at the time of their respective credits in Spiritualism, they were born in Canada!

SPOTLIGHT ON...

Immigrants Arrive

Marlene Glauser
Springdale Church, Toronto

In the second half of the nineteenth century, there was an increase in immigration from the United Kingdom, especially from Scotland. Those arriving who were Spiritualists met in home circles with family, friends and acquaintances.

Susanna Moodie and her husband Dunbar Moodie were two of the early Spiritualists in Canada and Dunbar was more interested in spiritualism than his wife.

Susanna Moodie (nee Strickland) was born in Bungay, Suffolk County, England in 1803. She was the youngest of four siblings in a literary family. In 1822, at the age of 19, she published her first book.

An active abolitionist, she met her husband Dunbar Moodie, whose family came from the Orkney Islands in Scotland, at a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society in 1830 and they married in 1831.

The Moodies arrived in Upper Canada in 1832. It was customary in many families to provide the riches of the family to the eldest son. Dunbar was the youngest son. He was a lieutenant in the 21st Regiment of Fusileers but had been severely wounded in a night attack in Holland.

Immigration was a matter of necessity not choice. At this time, the Canadian government gave a grant of four hundred acres of land to officers upon half pay; so, settling north of Peterborough, the Moodies hoped to better their financial status.

Life in Canada was challenging. They built their log cabin for survival and had two failed farming endeavours as well as a house fire within the first seven years in Canada. At a later date, their home caught fire and they lost everything!

In the first seven years, Susanna and her son became gravely ill. She needed quiet time to recover so her young daughter was sent to another family to live. Sadly, the Moodie's son transitioned into the World of Spirit in 1840 and another son in 1844

Dunbar Moodie served as Sheriff of Victoria District and later Hastings from 1839 to until 1863 when he resigned on the advice of his solicitor.

In 1852, Susanna published her book Roughing It in the Bush with a second working title of Forest Life in Canada. It is listed on Canada's Library and Archives site. Dunbar wrote light verse, short stories, essays, and lectures. Three of the sketches included in the first edition of his wife's book Roughing It in the Bush, were drawn by him. More information about Susanna' Moodie's writings can be found on Country Roads.

In 1855, at their request, Kate Fox visited the Moodies at their home. Susanna was a skeptic of Spiritualism and after demonstrations, still had apprehensions. Dunbar continued to investigate spiritualism in a scientific manner and wrote letters to the Spiritual Telegraph discussing his experiments and experiences. He became actively involved in the Spiritualist movement attending séances at the homes of some of Belleville's most prominent citizens including Mayor John O'Hare. In 1857, their daughter, Agnes Moodie, became a writing medium. Their contribution to Spiritualism in Canada is invaluable.

Christmas is not a time nor a season, but a state of mind. To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas. Christmas waves a magic wand over this world, and behold, everything is softer and more beautiful.
